

For Parents
 Welcome to the March 2019 Parents and Carers section of the Scomis Online Safety Newsletter

Screen Time continues to be in the news!

The UK Chief Medical Officers (UK CMOs) have now published advice for parents and carers on Children and Young People’s screen and social media use.

The UK CMOs commissioned independent researchers at University College London (2018) to map published research on screen time, social media, and children and young people’s mental health.

Read the UK CMOs advice for parents and carers, and their recommendations for other stakeholders here

Safer Internet Day 5th February 2019
 Commission announced next steps to keep children safe online:
 A new Expert Group on Safer Internet for Children will propose concrete actions to keep children safe when online:
Safer internet factsheet

South West Grid for Learning (SWGfL) announces the launch of their new ad-free child friendly search engine Swiggle.org.uk

The Swiggle Screen Cover widget provides a button that can be clicked to cover any unsuitable content until an adult is able to check the details.

Go to their website to found out more.

Are you a 'sharent'?

Did you post baby photos of your child?
 Have you taken and posted photos of your child with details of the location?
 Have you taken and posted photos of your child in their school uniform?
 Yes, to any of the above?
 Check Max and Harvey’s social rules for parents on BBC’s Ownit website:
<https://www.bbc.com/ownit/its-personal/max-and-harvey-social-media-rules>

Internet Matters:
 sharing tips for parents.
 Get tips to share child’s milestone moments safely here

Worried about Online Challenges?

Find out what you need to know here

Talk to a professional at the NSPCC’s helpline on 0808 800 5002 and Childline (0800 1111)